AT THE TURN OF THE TIDE.

Old Year, let us laugh as the goblet we quaff,
In the cheer of the wine's bright flowing;
And here by thy side, at the turn of the tide,
I'll troll thee a song of Eternity wide,
Where ships of the soul at their anchorage ride,
Secure from the storms that are blowing.

O, oft in the strife and the folly of life,
Song swells from a heart that is aching;
So up from the calm there has stolen a charm,
That lures us away to the realms of the palm,
And nymphs of the isle that have distilled us a balm
To soften the pain of the waking.

The song with a tear now is blended, Old Year,
And white are the mists of the morning;
The heart that was bold lieth silent and cold,
As thy form to my bosom tenderly fold;
Thou sleepest for aye and the bell it is tolled.
At the turn of the tide in the dawning.

NEW CHAPTER. — On Nov. 19th Grand High Priest Franklin R. Redlon issued a dispensation for a new chapter of Royal Arch Masons to 24 companions at Richmond. Wallace N. Price is the first High Priest, Melville G. Buker, King, and James A. Proctor, Scribe. They will hold stated meetings on the third Thursday of each month. William R. Fairclough is the Secretary.

The name Emeth is from the Hebrew and means Integrity, Fidelity, Firmness and Constancy in keeping a promise and especially Truth as opposed to Falsehood, says Mackey.

THIRD DISTRICT.—Grand Master Mallet on December 31st appointed Bro. Millard H. Wiswell of East Machias to be District Deputy of the third district in place of Bro. Forrest S. Stevens, resigned.

M. Wor. Bro. Wm. R. G. Estes installed Bro. Levi C. Emery of Skowhegan as Gr. Sword Bearer Oct. 26th. Forty-one years ago he initiated him, and thirty-six years ago installed him as Master of Somerset Lodge. Bro. Estes almost comes into the list of old masons, as he was made in Freeport Lodge in May, 1853. He came into the Grand Lodge in 1864.

Dedication.

The new masonic hall of Bethel Lodge, No. 97, at Bethel, was dedicated by Grand Master Edmund B. Mallet on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 12th. A snow storm made the weather unfavorable, but a very pleasant time was enjoyed. In the evening the officers were installed, and after that there was a banquet with speeches, which lasted until midnight. But little time was allowed for sleep, as the Grand Officers started for home at 4 a. m. The Grand Lodge was represented by the Grand Master, by Rev. Wm. H. Fultz, Grand Chaplain, Freeman M. Grant, Grand Marshal, and Warren O. Carney, Grand Tyler, the other offices being filled by the local brethren.

NEW LODGE.—The brethren in McKinley, a part of the town of Tremont on Mount Desert Island, propose to ask for a new lodge, and it is thought that Tremont Lodge will promptly recommend them.

Portland Masonic Temple.

Brethren who have not yet sent in their subscription for Units in the Portland Masonic Temple are requested to do so by mailing the same in the stamped envelope addressed to A. G. Schlotterbeck, Chairman of the committee,

The committee have met with such encouragement in the sale of Units that the construction of a building covering the entire masonic lot is now contemplated, the income of which, as the committee estimates, assures the paying of a 4 per cent. dividend. Including the lot, the property will represent about $400,000 in actual value.

Books, Papers, etc.

We are indebted to Joseph Wood, Secretary Maine Press Association, for their proceedings 1864-65-66 in one number, and for 1908. Published by the Maine Coast Cottager office.

The Lodge versus the Church is a 14 page octavo pamphlet, published by the Golden Rule Publishing Co., Nashua, New Hampshire, and written by Rev. Edgar F. Blanchard. Price 10 cents. It shows what the church must do to compete with the lodge.

MAINE FARMERS' ALMANAC, 1909.—No. 91 shows the sun 179 days north of the equator and 196 days south, which favors the South pole. In 1908 it was the reverse.

There will be a total eclipse of the moon, visible in Maine, June 3d, at 7 h. 4 m. evening, local time, ending at 9 h. 20 m. A partial eclipse of the sun, visible in Maine, June 17th, at 7 h. 11 m. evening. A total eclipse of the moon, visible in Maine, Nov. 27th, at 2 h. 22 m. morning.

Lent begins Feb. 24th; Easter April 11th; Ascension Day May 20th. July 4th comes on Sunday. Christmas on Saturday.

The full moons come—

January 6,	9 h. 33 m. morning
February 5,	3 h. 46 m. morning
March 6,	10 h. 17 m. evening
April 5,	3 h. 49 m. evening
May 5,	7 h. 29 m. morning
June 3,	8 h. 45 m. evening
July 3,	7 h. 38 m. morning
August 1,	4 h. 35 m. evening
August 31,	0 h. 29 m. morning
September 29,	8 h. 26 m. morning
October 28,	5 h. 28 m. evening
November 27,	4 h. 13 m. morning
December 26,	4 h. 51 m. evening

This is local time and 20 minutes must be added for standard time. There are 13 moons this year, and the second one in August comes very near midnight, so it will not do to use calendars prepared for other states.

Old Masons in Maine.

The following is of interest, although the brethren named do not get fairly into the old list yet. We are looking now for those made in the forties.

THOMASTON, ME., Oct. 28, 1908.

Dear Bro. Berry:—I watched for the result of your inquiry in your July number of the Token regarding the "Old Masons," and have looked over the records in my own lodge since. Orient Lodge, No. 15, has got four old members, Capt. Dunbar Henderson, raised in July, 1855. Bro. H. was a master mariner for years, and on his retiring a few years ago took an active interest in the lodge and to-day is Tyler of the same, and when I called to-day was celebrating his 83d birthday by smoking his T. D., as he expressed it.

Bro. Charles Redman, raised in August, 1855, now 74 years of age, is a Past Master of this lodge.

Bro. Nicholas Lenfest, raised in October, 1855, was 92 years old the 4th of last July. Bro. L. has always been a very regular attendant at the meetings of the lodge, has filled a number of offices, but not that of Master, and on nights when we have work often goes to lodge with his son.

Bro. Thomas S. Andrews, raised in May, 1855, now 74 years old, has been W. M. three different times, and served as D. D. G. M. of the 9th District two years.

Fraternally yours,

EDWARD G. WESTON, P. J. G. W.

The Macoy Publishing Co., 45 John St., N.Y., have issued a Masonic Directory for the State of Maine which will be sent to any one on application. It gives the lodges by Districts, the chapters, councils, commanderies, Scottish Rite bodies, Shrine and chapter, of the Eastern Star, with other interesting matter.

NEW SOCIETY OF MASONIC VETERANS.—Bro. Robert Freke Gould, the English Historian, has started a new society of Veterans, to be composed of masonic writers who have been masons for fifty years. The members thus far are—

- 1 Robert Freke Gould, Woking, England.
- 2 Thomas Payne Ashley, P. P. S. G. W. Somerset, Eng.
- 3 Walter Goddard Rogers, P. G. D., Devon, Eng.
- 4 Sir Charles Warren, P. D. G. M., Eng.
- 5 William M. Cunningham, P. G. M. Ohio.
- 6 Joseph Robbins, P. G. M. Illinois.
- 7 John Corson Smith, P. G. M. Illinois.
- 8 Stephen Berry, G. Sec. Maine.
- 9 Richard Lambert, G. Sec. Louisiana.
- 10 Henry B. Grant, G. Sec. Kentucky.

That of Robert Freke Gould is a view of Woking Village, where he lives.

The following lodges pay $1, $2 or $3 a year, receiving 11, 22 and 33 copies of the Token respectively, to distribute to the members who are promptest in attendance:

	Copies
St. Andrew's, Bangor,	22
Temple, Westbrook,	11
Hancock, Castine,	11
Ira Berry, Bluehill,	22
Rising Virtue, Bangor,	22
Kenduskeag, Kenduskeag,	11
Ira Berry Chapter, Pittsfield,	22
Pioneer Lodge, Ashland,	11
Lincoln Lodge, Wiscasset,	33
St. Aspinquid Lodge, York Corner,	11
Olive Branch Lodge, Charleston,	11

What lodge shall be next added?

Yankee Christmas Club.

If any mason is anxious to exemplify a spirit of good will towards "Shut-Ins"—those who never have the pleasure of this world, but who, by disease or physical disability, are confined to or "shut in" a room, or if any there be who wish to send the spirit of Christmas to these unfortunates, and thus acquire a personal touch with them, let him address Bro. Wm. T. Totten, Secretary of the Yankee Christmas Club, Station "S," Philadelphia, Pa., and send a stamped addressed envelope for the name and address of a worthy person, either connected with the masonic fraternity or not, who is an unfortunate "Shut-In." The "Yankee" Christmas Club is somewhat of a misnomer, but it certainly has accomplished a great deal of good for the afflicted who are classed as "Shut-Ins," and Bro. Totten, its indefatigable Secretary, has certainly given much of his time, work and influence to the peculiar charitable work he has undertaken. A contribution of money may be sent Bro. Totten and it will be judiciously expended. I have for years been in touch with the pains-taking, earnest, intelligent work of this good brother, and I make him my Almoner yearly for the distribution of money and help to "Shut-Ins."

Fraternally yours,

WILLIAM B. MELISH,
Dep. Gr. Master Gr. Enct., U.S.A.
Cincinnati, Thanksgiving Day, 1908.

We publish the above at the request of Bro. Melish. We also suggest that there are many "Shut-Ins" in our own jurisdiction who might also be remembered. Miss Alma Appleton, South Brewer, Maine, is one mentioned in their circular.

We have received a novelty in the way of a new Catalogue of special goods for Knights Templar, such as Dress and Fatigue Coats, Trousers, Shoulder Straps, Traveling Caps, Dress Suit Cases, etc., all being quoted at net prices. All discounts being deducted. One price for all buyers seems the fairest way. The Catalogue is well illustrated and looks inviting to buyers. It is published by the Cincinnati Regalia Company, Regalia Block, Cincinnati, Ohio, and we are informed it will be furnished free to all applicants.

The 56th annual reunion of the A. & A. Rite at Pittsburgh, Penn., was held Nov. 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th, and we are obliged to John Edgar Haines, Secretary, for an invitation to attend.

Secretaries should instantly report the election of officers, if they have not done so, that communications, &c., may be sent to the proper addresses.

Any lodge officer or member of the Grand Lodge can obtain a copy of the Constitution by remitting the postage, a three cent stamp, to the Grand Secretary.

Any member of the Grand Chapter can obtain the Constitution of that body in the same way.

GRAND LODGE OF MAINE.

ANNUAL MEETINGS.

The Masonic Grand Bodies in Maine will hold their Annual Sessions for 1909 at Masonic Hall in Portland, as follows:

Grand Lodge,	Tuesday, May 4,	at 9 o'clock A. M.
Grand Chapter,	" 4,	at 7 o'clock P. M.
Grand Council,	Wed'sdy, " 5,	at 2 o'clock P. M.
Gr. Com'dery,	Thursday, " 6,	at 2 o'clock P. M.

Lodge officers, in making applications to the Charity Fund for Relief, must be particularly careful to comply with all the directions required in filling out blanks. See pp. 120, 121 and 122, proceedings 1908.

To Secretaries: Blanks for Returns of Lodges will be sent first of February. If not received by the 15th, notify me, and give the proper address. If there has been a change in the office of Secretary, call on the former one before writing me.

STEPHEN BERRY,
Grand Secretary.

Portland, Jan. 15, 1909.

A happy new year to the readers of the Token. As Bro. John W. Ballou says: May they live a thousand years and grow to an enormous size.

We wish the lodges would secure for their libraries the remaining volumes 2, 3 and 4 of the Token, which cover a term of thirty years, and give a part of the history of Masonry in Maine not included in the proceedings. The paper will probably end with the 5th volume, as it is not the habit of masonic editors to last more than 50 years in the business, and as the present editor has published the paper partly at his own expense, besides giving his labor free, it is quite certain that no one else will undertake the burden to follow him. The volumes cost $1.50 each with title page and index, complete, and the binding is $1.00 extra.

Many lodges are asking if the request of Fredericksburg Lodge for aid to build a masonic hall is approved. We understand that it is so by the Grand Master of Virginia.

There is no objection to helping any lodge build a hall, and the lodge where Washington was initiated commends itself to all who wish that foreign brethren visiting Washington's masonic birthplace should find a creditable building there.

Names of candidates should never be printed in notices. If rejected it might injure them in the eyes of the community. It is sometimes permitted and sometimes done without permission, but it is always wrong. Silence should be the watchword of the craft.

John Braim, Grand Secretary of Victoria, has favored us with the program of the reception of the masons of the American fleet, which is a very handsome production. The toasts, the speeches and the songs must have been inspiring.

Bro. William Homan of New York has been elected an honorary 33° of the Supreme Council of Canada, thus completing his membership in all the Supreme Councils of North America, Northern, Southern, Mexican and Canadian.

CALIFORNIA.—At the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, Oct. 13th, Deputy Grand Master Reuben H. Lloyd, (P. G. Master of Templars) declined advancement on account of severe illness, and Oscar Lawler of Los Angeles was elected Grand Master. W. Frank Pierce (Grand S. Warden Grand Encampment) was made Dep'y Grand Master, and John Whicher was elected Grand Secretary, he having been Grand Sec. pro tem, since the resignation of Bro. George Johnson from ill health. For six years past Bro. Whicher has been Deputy Superintendent of State printing at Sacramento.

Alden Miller Wetherbee,

Junior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge in 1876, and its oldest member, died at Union Oct. 15th, aged 78. He was born April 13, 1830, and was a resident of Warren. He first attended Grand Lodge in 1855 and has been very constant in attendance since, having been at 50 annual sessions. He left two sons. A collection of curios numbering over 10,000 specimens, gathered by him, has attracted much attention. His funeral was conducted at Warren by Claremont Commandery of Rockland.

The Los Angeles, California, Board of Relief reports $20 paid for Maine in 1908, with nothing returned. The total paid out $12,501.54, and $3,709.39 was paid by the Los Angeles city lodges.

David B. Fuller, Grand Commander of Kansas, was born in Albion, Maine, in 1853. He has been Grand Master and is the Grand Representative of Maine in Grand Commandery.

George E. Raymond

Died in Portland Oct. 19th, at the age of 61 years and 4 months, after a long illness. He was a civil engineer, and had been manager of the Consolidated Electric Light Co. since its institution. He was born in Portland in 1847. He left a son and a daughter. His wife and daughter Edna had died before him.

In Masonry he had presided in Atlantic Lodge, Greenleaf Chapter, Portland Council, Portland Commandery and the Scottish Rite, and had received the 33d degree. He was one of the Trustees, and had been a Grand Lecturer.

He was of a genial disposition and a much valued member of the craft.

CHAIN LETTER. — Another chain letter comes from Sydney, N. S., where they wish to clear off a debt of $12,000 on a new Masonic Temple. We have no objection to having the debt paid by the craft at large, but the idea of writing three letters to friends and one to the committee and paying postage on them of 8 cents to get the 10 cents to the committee is preposterous, and we gladly break the chain.

Since writing the above a circular has been issued by Grand Master Charles B. Smith of Nova Scotia, condemning the application and saying it was not authorized.

Christmas Observance.

The Observance was general, all the Gr. Commanderies having issued circulars to their commanderies. Grand Master Rugg received over 200 Christmas telegrams, including a cablegram from Far East Commandery in Manila and one from Hawaii.

The Grand Lodge of Illinois has changed its name back to the original title, "Ancient Free and Accepted Masons," by inserting the "Ancient." The Grand Lodge of Maine has the "Ancient" in, although the first page of the Constitution has the other form twice. It shows how popular the Ancients were in the early part of the last century. It was one of the terms of union in England that Ancient should be included in the title of the united body, and perhaps imitation had something to do with it.

Daniel Babcock, of Phenix, R. I., celebrated the 80th anniversary of his birth Dec. 4th. He served eight years as Master of Warwick Lodge and is the oldest Past Master. He had a reception and many gifts. Bro. Babcock, as a member of the Babcock Printing Press Company, sold us the press upon which the Token is printed, and we congratulate him upon his fine old age.

The Grand Lodge of Massachusetts has decided against the recognition of the Gr. Lodge of France, a body separate from the Grand Orient, and which recognizes the Grand Architect of the Universe. The belief in Deity, however, is not obligatory upon all candidates, and is therefore not considered satisfactory.

The Grand Orient of Italy sends out a call for masonic earthquake contributions from all the masonic world.

The old masonic temple on the corner of Tremont street and Temple Place in Boston is now being removed to make place for a business building. We remember calling there on Grand Secretary Chas. W. Moore in the 50s.

The Grand Master of Illinois has pronounced against lodges attending church services in masonic clothing. The New York Masonic Standard disagrees and says it has been a masonic custom in New York from time immemorial. It has been the same in Maine from the early days.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows in Maine has 148 lodges and 24,507 members.

TO THE FRINGED GENTIAN.

Thou blossoms, bright with autumn dew,
And color'd with the heaven's own blue,
That openest when the quiet light
Succeeds the keen and frosty night.

Thou waitest late, and com'st alone,
When woods are bare and birds are flown,
And frosts and shortening days portend,
The aged Year is near his end.

Then doth thy sweet and quiet eye
Look through its fringes to the sky,
Blue—blue—as if that sky let fall
A flower from its cerulean wall.

I would that thus, when I shall see
The hour of death draw near to me,
Hope, blossoming within my heart,
May look to heaven as I depart.

[—William Cullen Bryant.]

PREMIUMS.—Any brother who will procure subscribers for us, remitting not less than $1 at a time, may retain one-fourth of the money for his services. Those who wish to assist us, without caring for the premium, can gratify some indigent brother by sending him a paper free. It is better to take subscriptions for two years.
