THE REAPER AND THE FLOW-ERS.

BY HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW.

There is a Reaper whose name is Death, And with his sickle keen, He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, And the flowers that grow between.

"Shall I have nought that is fair?" saith he; "Have nought but the bearded grain? Though the breath of these flowers is sweet to me I will give them a'l back again."

He gazed at the flowers with tearful eyes, He kissed their drooping leaves; It was for the Lord of Paradise He bound them in his sheaves.

"My Lord has need of these flowerets gay," The Reaper said, and smiled; "Dear tokens of the earth are they, Where he was once a child.

"They shall all bloom in fields of light, Transplanted by my care, And saints, upon their garments white, These sacred blossoms wear."

And the mother gave, in tears and pain, The flowers she most did love; She knew she should find them all again In the fields of light above.

O, not in cruelty, not in wrath, The Reaper came that day; 'Twas an angel visited the green earth, And took the flowers away.

Ancient Mysteries and Modern Masonry, by Rev. Chas. H. Vail. Published by Macoy Publishing and Masonic Supply Co., N. Y. City, $1, 12mo. cloth, 214 pages. A series of lectures giving much information on the subjects included in the title. The author is the pastor of the Pullman Memorial Church at Albion, N. Y., and has evidently studied his subject diligently. It is a subject of much interest to thoughtful masons.

Dear Sir and Brother: THE WORSHIPFUL SOCIETY OF FREEMASONS

(Operative.)

I have read with much interest the article which appeared in the Masonic Token, Oct. 15, 1909. It will probably be of interest to your readers to know that The Masons' Company of London still is an important Livery Company in London, and that The Worshipful Society of Freemasons, Rough Masons, Wallers, Slaters, Paviors, Plasterers and Bricklayers still exists in England.

This ancient Operative Craft which dates back to the time of Nimrod and Solomon still carefully preserves and works the ancient masonic ritual and customs.

I enclose the form of application which has to be made in the 1st and the second degrees. This two forms have never before been given in print and are therefore of much interest to members of the craft.

Yours fraternally,

CLEMENT E. STRETTON,

Member Society of Engineers Third Master Mason vii^o.

The Alpina of Switzerland, in an able article on Charity and Pauperism, suggests that the difference between charity in the United States and Europe is owing to the great mass of paupers in Europe which we do not have here.

COLORED MASONRY. We are indebted to the Hon. J. C. Corbin of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, for proceedings of the Colored Grand Lodge of Arkansas for 1908. The returns show 4,376 members, other columns not footed. There is a very good report on correspondence by P. G. M. Corbin.

Bro. Lorenzo S. Robinson has been elected Secretary of Aurora Lodge, Rockland, for his 23d year.

On a Lute Found in a Sarcophagus.

What curled and scented sun-girls, almond-eyed, With lotus blossoms in their hands and hair, Have made their swarthy lovers call them fair With these spent strings, when brutes were deified, And Memnon in the sunrise sprang and cried, And love winds smote Bubastis, and the bare Black breasts of carven Pasht received the prayer of suppliants bearing gifts from far and wide ! This lute has outsung Egypt; all the lives of violent passion, and the vast calm art That lasts in granite only, all lie dead; This little bird of song alone survives, As fresh as when its fluting smote the heart Last time the brown slave wore it garlanded. --[Edmund Gosse.]

Secretaries should instantly report the election of officers, if they have not done so, that communications, &c., may be sent to the proper addresses.

Christmas Observance.

Grand Master Henry W. Rugg was detained at his home by illness, but, after the meeting of the two Providence commanderies, Thomas V. Dutton, Commander of Detroit Commandery, attended by many distinguished templars, went to his home and presented a certificate of honorary membership in Detroit Commandery.

All of the Grand Commanderies issued invitations to their subordinates and the observance was general in this country and in Great Britain where the Great Priory accepted the invitation and it was published in the London Freemason.

In Maine all the commanderies assembled. In Portland the attendance was 155; in Biddeford 146; in Bath 107; in Bangor 100; in Waterville 67; in Skowhegan 43; in Rumford 30; in Bridgton 29. The others have not yet reported.

It seems the movement to build a Masonic Temple in Jerusalem is not to erect one on Mt. Moriah, which would not be permitted, but one elsewhere at the cost of $100,000, which is to be solicited from all the lodges in the country. An association called the Jerusalem Temple Association has been incorporated under Massachusetts laws. The architecture will conform closely to King Solomon's Temple.

MASONIC VETERAN ASSOCIATION OF ILLI-NOIS.—The proceedings of the 24th annual assembly Oct. 27, 1909, are received from Harris A. Wheeler, Chicago, Secretary, Gen. John Corson Smith, Chicago, Venerable Chief. As usual it is a beautiful volume, finely illustrated, and, as usual, the proceedings were interesting, especially the letters and contributions of verse.

Eugene C. Smith, High Priest, gave a dinner to the officers of Mt. Vernon Chapter at Riverton January 4th. It was a zero night but was an excellent dinner and the smoke and chat in the parlor above after it was enjoyable.

Chapters of Instruction will be held as follows:

- At Rockland, Friday, January 21st, at 3 o'clock P. M.
- At Houlton, Tuesday, March 8th at 2:30 o'clock P. M.

WOODRUFF. Past Grand Commander Carl A. Woodruff of North Carolina, (retired General U. S. A.,) from our biography of Charles R. Woodruff in the Grand Commandery proceedings for 1909 found that they were akin, both being of New Jersey stock. The great grandfather of Gen. Woodruff, Aaron Dickinson Woodruff, was a Grand Master of New Jersey, and in October 20,000 freemasons assisted in unvailing a tablet over his grave in Trenton.

James E. Blanchard.

Bro. James E. Blanchard, for twenty years treasurer of Kennebec County, died suddenly from a blood clot, the result of inflammatory rheumatism, Oct. 23d, at the age of 52. He was born in Chelsea, Sept. 21, 1857, and was married in 1892 to Miss Adeline N. Owen of Angusta, who survives him, with a daughter and son. He was Recorder of Trinity Commandery, was Gr. High Priest of the Grand Chapter in 1906, and Grand Master of the Grand Council in 1899.

If Octavius A. Hill was made a mason in Arkansas in 1845 as stated, he was the oldest mason in Maine. He would have been 21 years old at that time.

IN THE AGE OF THE YEAR

Is it the wizard wind, That has shriveled the quince's rind? Sooth, we know it was he Who shook the leaves from the tree, And danced them out of breath Till they wirzanch every in death: Till they wizened away in death; Strange and subtle powers Have rule of these ashen hours, Binding the stricken sphere In this, the age of the year.

Through the crisp grass and the husk, Rustle the feet of the Dusk; And the only song we know Is the back-log's murnur low. Then come and sit with me By the side of Memory And Love, with the blue skies In her spring-reverting eyes, And there shall be vernal cheer In this, the age of the vear. —[Clinton Scollard in Munseys.]

GENERAL GRAND LODGE. Claims have been made that the Conferences of Grand Masters at Philadelphia and Baltimore were in favor of a General Grand Lodge. That was not so, and the Grand Master of Maine, who attended them, is firmly opposed to a general body.

Dr. Milligan and Freemasonry.

Recently at the commemorative services of Dr. Milligan's induction into St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, the Doctor is reported to have declared himself a firm believer in a national church in which Anglicans, Baptists, Methodists, and Presbyterians could unite on the one organic principle of faith in Christ. In an hour when he hovered between life and death, he had come to a clear vision that such a united church was for the best. In deprecating observance of an external form, he said there were churches in which he could not sit at sacrament because of such observance. For this reason also, he could not entirely approve of Freemasonry, beneficent as its teachings were.

It is hard to comprehend what the Doctor means when he speaks of observance of an external form connected with Masonry. There are observances, we admit, connected with Masonry, but they are broad enough to permit men of all nations and creeds to enjoy its privileges. Even the united church, of which the Doctor had a clear vision, could not be as broad as that. One of the objects of Masonry is a united brotherhood among the nations of the world, and no higher aim could be conceived than that of bringing men together in one common brotherhood. Have less bickering about form and more fellowship among the churches and you will have a united church. Masonry may have its faults, yet it has done more for the alleviation of distress and the unity of the races of the world than any other organized body. - [Masonic Sun.]

Are 4,000 Years Old.

From Stockholm comes the news that pole dwellings four thousand years old, similar to those discovered in the north of Switzerland, have been unearthed in a swamp on the plateau east of Lake Vetter, 120 miles north-west of Stockholm. The excavations disclosed petrified apples, wheat kernels, nuts, pottery, flint, and horn implements, amber ornaments, and wild boar teeth, all in a good state of preservation in the calcareous mud.-[Masonic Sun.]

Old Time Masons.

Among the semi-centenarians of the order a few come to my mind as deserving the respect and homage of our Craft. First and foremost is our much loved and honored Brother David H. Wright, who for over sixty years has been, and is now, the Patron Saint of Madison and Wisconsin generally. He is over 89 years old, Past Grand Master and I have an idea that the proceedings of the Grand Lodge would hardly be legal if he was not present, as I don't think he has missed a meeting since its formation.

WELL FORMED, TRUE, AND TRUSTY. A formula used by the Grand Master at the laying of a corner-stone. Having applied the square, level, and plumb to its different surfaces and angles, he declares it to be " well formed, true, and trusty." Borrowed from the technical language of Operative Masonry, it is symbolically applied in reference to the character which the Entered Apprentice should sustain when, in the course of his initiation, he assumes the place of a typical corner-stone in the lodge.-[Encyclopædia of Freemasonry-McClenachan.]

Recently Discovered Facts About the Hittites.

Some interesting details are given by Prof. John Garstang of the ancient race of people mentioned in the Bible as the Hittites. He said there could be nothing more romantic than the finding of Boghas, the old capital of the Hittites' country in Southern Syria. A few yards below the surface of this once famous city had been found the remains of the palaces which belonged to the great Hittite king who fought the Pharaohs.

The land of the Hittites had been discovered by the finding of a whole series of monuments, carvings and rock sculpture. As early as B. C. 2000 they were a force in Southern Syria, and we could learn that they were an extremely mixed race, with a touch of the Mongolian.

About B. C. 1300 the Hittite, Babylonian and Egyptian people held the balance of power in Western Asia. One thing of striking interest was the recent discovery of a message which the king of Babylon sent to the king of the Hittite, which read: "I hear you are carrying on with the King of Egypt. What does this mean?"

The Htitite king then made an extract from the treaty he had just concluded with a Pharaoh and sent it to the Babylonian king, at the same time keeping a copy of his letter. That copy had now come down to us. Other letters, too, had been found. [Masonic Sun]
